

Have you planned your CPD programme for next year?

Have you considered your inset programme of twilights and training days for next year?

Full-day, half-day, and twilight modules are available in a wide range of areas including:

- closing the gap for disadvantaged pupils (at classroom level / at leadership level);
- developing reading comprehension and maximising the use of whole class texts;
- non-fiction reading / non-fiction writing;
- marking, feedback and post production activities;
- progression in writing;
- metacognition;
- Growth Mindsets; and
- using the power of questioning, developing talk and harnessing thinking skills.

Have training sessions designed to meet the needs of your school. To maximise impact, consider multiple sessions with gap tasks to embed changes and tackle high priority issues with rigour.

Leadership development

Have you planned your programme of leadership development?

Why not consider a series of leadership sessions:

- Strategic leadership and facilitated SLT sessions, e.g. planning for the year ahead, reviewing the development plan, mid-year reflection activities, data analysis.
- Senior leadership team training programmes - onsite or offsite sessions designed to fit the needs of your team and provide support for specific aspects of leadership, e.g. team work, developing as an SLT, increasing the impact of lesson observations, sharpening school self-evaluation activities, emotional intelligence, challenging conversations.
- Curriculum development - support for leaders with 'intent, implement, impact'.
- Middle leadership training programmes.

In-depth development programmes

Create your own multi-day package of support to aid the implementation of whole school initiatives. Mix leadership days, twilight training, consultant review days and 1:1 support across a whole year to tackle large scale changes, e.g. developing reading across the school, improving the quality of the curriculum, tackling progression in writing.

The following provides an illustration of typical base line pricing for the academic year 2019/2020 excluding VAT:

Full-day training delivered in your school:

Typically, a full training day event for up to 15 delegates from the same school is £650 plus an additional £22 per delegate for additional colleagues (from the same school). This includes all the training materials needed for the day and a delegate pack for each participant.

Two-hour twilights:

£400 for up to 15 delegates from the same school. An additional £18 per delegate for additional colleagues.

Leadership mornings / Leadership afternoons:

For a small group of leaders from the same school working together the cost is typically £450-£500 for half a day.

Bespoke consultancy support:

- One day of bespoke support and any associated report £650, e.g. carrying out an audit, teaching and learning review, working with individual leaders.
- Discounts can be applied to multi-day packages. Schools undertaking in-house training often receive special offers, such as discounted in-school sessions and discounts on central training courses.

Cluster support / large scale events

The cost for this type of training depends on the number of delegates, the number of schools involved, and the type of training being delivered. For example, middle leadership training at cluster level is typically £80-120 per person for a group of 10 or more. Whereas TA training for 60+ delegates would benefit from bulk discount and would typically range from £50-£80 per person depending on venue.
