

Deputy Headteacher : Key Issues

A programme across the year

Leaders are constantly seeking to improve, and therefore need access to courses that combine ongoing leadership training with the day-to-day reality of being a DHT. Six full days across the year allow DHTs to tackle relevant and complex issues with depth and rigour. The course provides an opportunity to re-energise and re-focus each half term. Suitable for all DHTs.

Evaluations from previous courses:

"This course is having a huge impact on my leadership skills and confidence."

"Lovely atmosphere. Superb trainer. Exceeded expectations. I feel enthused and empowered to make a difference."

"This has been one of the most informative, interesting and useful courses I have been on."

"Excellent ideas and suggestions, especially when dealing with tricky issues. I would recommend this training to others."

"Vicky created a safe environment to discuss some challenging issues openly and in a reflective manner."

"Every session has been immensely useful."

6 face to face training days - one each half term - covering:

- Identifying school strengths and weaknesses through critical analysis and school self-evaluation activities. Deepen your knowledge of school data and use it to drive forward school improvement actions.
- Strategies for influencing and developing the quality of teaching across the school, including inspiring others, promoting good practice and tackling underperformance.
- Exploring and resolving issues that limit the impact of DHTs.
- Tackling complex work relationships.
- Leading and managing others - how to grow middle leadership in the school.
- Creating strong practice - exploring DHT issues related to parents and governors.
- The course provides an opportunity to examine up-to-date research and respond to publications by DfE and Ofsted, e.g. implementing an effective curriculum; learning in EYFS; closing the gap for disadvantaged pupils.
- Writing evaluative reports, presenting to governors, and evidencing impact. Consideration for external reviews, such as Ofsted.
- Increasing personal effectiveness and improving day-to-day efficiency and working through complex problems with other leaders.

The course culminates with a celebration event to which headteachers and governors are invited.
