

Headteacher Leadership

Continued professional development for existing Headteachers

Six half-day morning workshop sessions with a focus on:

- professional discussion / exchange of knowledge and ideas;
- leadership theory and its practical application in schools;
- educational research and the implications for leadership;
- practical tools and resources to use in school.

Indicative content:

- time management for busy Headteachers - reviewing strategic, structural and operational 'time thieves';
- change management - turning your vision into a reality and dealing with the complexities of school improvement;
- building a dynamic and effective leadership team and supporting the development of distributed leadership;
- making motivation your mantra to create a vibrant school that is more than the sum of its parts;
- day-to-day leadership issues such as communication, relationships, emotional intelligence, managing staff workloads and well-being, parental complaints, challenging conversations, etc;
- creating great schools - analysing systems, processes and people from top to bottom and left to right;
- policies - love them or hate them - recognising their importance and considering how to better utilise them;
- conducting school self-evaluation activities - using educational research to appreciate what to look for when conducting review activities.

Schools receive a 25% discount on the Strategic Leadership one-day course taking place on Wednesday 25th June 2019 and a 10% discount for the DHTs 2019-20 Key Issues programme.
