

Pupil Premium : Maximising Impact

In school support for primary leaders or whole staff training

“ Let’s go well beyond the surface of national research and turn theory into practical action. Let’s grapple with strategic solutions that don’t deny the complexity of the issues. Let’s examine whole school actions that result in improved pupil performance and narrow the gap for disadvantaged pupils. ”

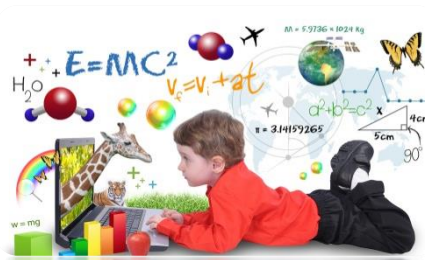

Vicky Crane, trainer

Do you want a challenging course aimed at really unpicking the difficulties of raising attainment for FSM pupils? Do you need to be able to use data effectively, to help pinpoint actions and demonstrate impact? Do you need to return to school armed with clear strategies and a range of materials to support implementation? If so, this is the ideal course for you and other leaders in your school. Train together, to strengthen your ability to implement solutions and maximise the impact of CPD.

Free for schools attending: An electronic professional development package for teachers, worth over £100.

Session outcomes:

- Updates on the local and national picture, including the revised Ofsted framework and subsidiary guidance for inspectors
- Key insights into using data strategically to target pupils and demonstrate impact
- Consider the factors which impact on the performance of FSM pupils from Early Years to Key Stage 2
- Review relevant national research but with a practical and in-depth focus to ensure leaders are armed with materials and ideas that can be implemented in school
- Turn theory into practical action and review strategic approaches that meet the needs and profile of pupils in your school and community
